GRAND LODGE OF WI. INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS SCHOLARSHIP

POST HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP – Up to $500.00 per year

INTENT

To promote our Order by offering a post High School scholarship to students who have displayed good scholastic achievement in school and a high level of community service.

QUALIFICATIONS

Qualifications for receiving a scholarship will include, but are not limited to:

1. Scholastic record - A grade point average of 3.2 must be maintained as a criteria for the scholarship. Proof of grade point average must accompany the application. This can be in the form of an official transcript.
2. Extra curricular participation.
3. List of courses which you have taken which could be considered as college preparatory or as advanced areas of study. Comment on these classes and tell how you feel they prepared you for your chosen field or college in general.
4. Strong participation in community affairs.
5. Character and Attitude..

SELECTION

The applicant's school will assure that the applicant meets the criteria for selection. All eligible applications should be forwarded to the Grand Lodge of WI Scholarship Committee.

The school chosen by the applicant can be a college, technical college or trade school.

The scholarship money is for the payment of books or tuition and will be sent to the student after satisfactory completion of their first semester and enrollment for second semester.
